

Tourist accomodation in Botricello (CZ)

Vacation reserved to members of Associazione Resistenza

2011

Features

Botricello is an holiday resort along Jonian coastline of Calabria. Botricello is into Squillace Gulf, 40 km south of Crotona.

It's a tourist and agricultural village, founding its economy of scale on manufacturing of very kind of cheese, like pecorino, ricotta and mozzarella, homemade bread and traditional cakes, like pittinchiuse, taralli, frese and almond paste biscuits.

Main features of this land are sandy-beaches, mediterranean climate, Greek colonial poleis of Magna Grecia.

Calabrian cuisine is traditionally an intelligent blending of simple and genuine products. Vegetables are often enjoyed as a first course, either alone or accompanied by legumes or pasta: fava beans and chicory, field chicory in broth.

Pride of the Region, nduja and soppressata, pork sausage dried and preserved in extra-virgin olive oil.

Meats traditionally used are mutton and lamb and are grilled, braised or baked.
