

Florence- an unforgettable dream...

...made of history, art and ancient handicraft.

Lovers of art cannot be unmoved when they arrive at Florence- mother of Renaissance and capital of the Italian culture. Divided in two sides by Arno, Florence lies in a valley surrounded by a ring of sweet hills.

Description of our special tour:

1ST DAY:

Time to orient Welcome in a hotel on the Chianti hills (very famous all over the world for the wine they product) where you're going to spend Your stay

2ND DAY:

A trip through the history Guided Tour through the centre of the city. Lunch and free time. And now we are ready to watch the city from a particular view: we'll visit the Santa Croce church where we can admire also the interior cloister which long time ago holded the leather school.

3RD DAY:

The corporations of art and handicrafts

In the morning we discover a place aqbout which the almost part of tourists don't know the existence, that is, the laboratory of hard stones, a site so rich in traditions and "savoir-faire".

Lunch and free time

In the afternoon we visit the Medici-Riccardi palace, the San Lorenzo church with its Medici's Chapel holding Michelangelo's wonderful sculptures, and the old leather market surrounding the church.

4TH DAY

Sensorial experiences In the morning , crossing the heart of the city we slowly discover squares and places that once were the cornerstone of the economic and commercial vitality. The best example is the ancient pharmacy with its perfumes' laboratory in Santa Maria Novella.

Lunch and free time.

In the afternoon you'll have the possibility to take a walk among the old distinguished palaces, antiquity and restoration shops lying in the "Oltrarno", that is to say, on the other side of Arno nearby Borgo Santo Spirito. In this side of Florence, less known but worthy, we mustn't absolutely forget to see the Brancacci Chapel where we can admire the celebrated frescos of both painters, Masaccio and Masolino.

5TH DAY

Between spirituality and crafts Visit to the Charthusian monastery of Galluzzo. Free time and lunch. In the afternoon visit of Impruneta, the village which is celebrated for its "terra cotta".

Price of the tour :€ 349,00 for person (for a minimum of 10 participants)

Included in the price: Stay in a 3-stars-hotel (Bed and Breakfast)

(At pleasure: higher quality hotel or ancient residence)

Guided tours with high-qualified personal.

Excluded from the price:

-lunch and dinner

-trip from and to Florence

-trip insurance

Please for any kind of information you may need, get in touch with us!

Travel agency RE...SPO TOURS

- - Phone number: (0039) 055 223709

- - mail : respotours@libero.it