

Tuscan earth: magic of senses

Let you fascinate by the yellow cornfields and by the green waving tuscan hills, by the gentle breezes and the lightplays, by the white sunny streets plunging themselves in the light-blue sky and by the deep-green brush-strokes: hundred-years-old cypresses looking like custodians of lost cottages.

Let you surprise by the elegance of the tuscan villas looking like princes of Renaissance.

Breath the history walking on the twisting little streets among internal courtyards and high and fastous towers, inside the circle walls of the first medieval villages, to the discover of catholic churches rich in artistic treasures which the entire world envyes us.

Our tours were born in the blacksmith's laboratory, in the craftsmen's and artists' workshops, among the alambicchi of th spicymen( speziali), inside the farms, where you'll be initiated into the secrets of the Tuscan genuine cooking, into the wealthy properties of the olive oil and over all into the unforgettable fragrances of the Lord of these places: the Chianti.

Regain the true contact with your body among the "calme, fresche e dolci acque" of antician thermal water springs where expert hands will take care of you through all kinds of massages, muddy treatments and relaxing practices.

Let you enchant by this earth, so near, so remote, by this peace of senses, and these ancestral emotions which only this region can offer you.
